Our Mission Statement:

ChessKidz exists to promote the game of chess as a technique for lifelong learning. Children participate in a program that inspires imagination through problem solving and critical thinking allowing them to realize "kids have power".

Signing up is easy. Just fill out the fields below, cut at the dotted line (keep the top for your reference), and submit the form by mail to the post office box listed at the bottom. Please include a check that is negotiable to ChessKidz and include $3 for check processing. Online registrations will avoid the check fee. Late sign-ups are only accepted if space is available in the class. Please visit the website for refunds and expected attendance. "The Washoe County School District neither endorses nor sponsors the organization or activity represented in this document. The distribution of this material is provided as a community service." Schools do not accept, file or keep registration drop-offs at the school. Please do not leave a check or registration at the school office.
